A new archivist has been appointed to the Albert Gore Research Center. James T. Havron Jr. began his work in August, replacing Matthew Brown, who left the University in May. Havron comes to MTSU from the special collections area of the Nashville Public Library. He has also worked at the Grand Ole Opry Museum and the Tennessee State Library and Archives. In 2009, he finished an M.A. in history with a concentration in archives management at MTSU. He is also a certified archivist.
