Dear Bob:

Your appointment at the Radio Room is for 4:30 Friday afternoon. The record will go down by air and will be broadcast over WSM at 8:15 Sunday morning.

If I might be so presumptuous as to suggest the first sentence of your broadcast, I would suggest the following: "Good morning. I welcome the opportunity to talk to this large radio audience by substituting for my friend, Albert Gore, in giving an intpretation of the news of the week in Washington." Then proceed from there with whatever discussion you desire.

Sincerely yours,

Albert Gore, M. C.
